

College of the Redwoods Presents

2nd Annual Celebration of WOMEN In Math, Science & Engineering

April 3rd - 7th

2006

at the CR Eureka Campus and the Wharfinger Building

<http://online.redwoods.edu/womenMSE>

Tuesday, April 4th

Fifteen local professional women will participate in an intimate round table discussion.
2:00 - 4:00 PM, CR Lakeview Room & Cafeteria

Thursday, April 6th

When Medicine and Mathematics Meet

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Lisette de Pillis

7:00 PM, Wharfinger Building

#1 Marina Way, Eureka

Plus 3 Noon-time Lectures in Physical Science Room 113

Monday, April 3rd

Confusion Hill:
Engineering a Solution

Talitha Stimson
11:30AM - 12:30

Wednesday, April 5th

Living in the Hot Zone:
Evaluating Stream Temperature Using Thermal Infrared Imaging

Vicki Ozaki
11:30AM - 12:30

Friday, April 7th

Using Mathematics to Understand Cancer

Dr. Lisette
de Pillis
11:30AM - 12:30

All Events are Free and Open to the Public!

College of the Redwoods Presents

2nd Annual Celebration of WOMEN In Math, Science & Engineering

April 3rd - 7th

2006

at the CR Eureka Campus and the Wharfinger Building

<http://online.redwoods.edu/womenMSE>

Tuesday, April 4th

Fifteen local professional women will participate in an intimate round table discussion.
2:00 - 4:00 PM, CR Lakeview Room & Cafeteria

Thursday, April 6th

When Medicine and Mathematics Meet

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Lisette de Pillis

7:00 PM, Wharfinger Building

#1 Marina Way, Eureka

Plus 3 Noon-time Lectures in Physical Science Room 113

Monday, April 3rd

Confusion Hill:
Engineering a Solution

Talitha Stimson
11:30AM - 12:30

Wednesday, April 5th

Living in the Hot Zone:
Evaluating Stream Temperature Using Thermal
Infrared Imaging

Vicki Ozaki
11:30AM - 12:30

Friday, April 7th

Using Mathematics to Understand Cancer

Dr. Lisette
de Pillis
11:30AM - 12:30

All Events are Free and Open to the Public!

College of the Redwoods Presents

2nd Annual Celebration of WOMEN In Math, Science & Engineering

April 3rd - 7th

2006

at the CR Eureka Campus and the Wharfinger Building

<http://online.redwoods.edu/womenMSE>

Tuesday, April 4th

Fifteen local professional women will participate in an intimate round table discussion.
2:00 - 4:00 PM, CR Lakeview Room & Cafeteria

Thursday, April 6th

When Medicine and Mathematics Meet

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Lisette de Pillis

7:00 PM, Wharfinger Building

#1 Marina Way, Eureka

Plus 3 Noon-time Lectures in Physical Science Room 113

Monday, April 3rd

Confusion Hill:
Engineering a Solution

Talitha Stimson
11:30AM - 12:30

Wednesday, April 5th

Living in the Hot Zone:
Evaluating Stream Temperature Using Thermal
Infrared Imaging

Vicki Ozaki
11:30AM - 12:30

Friday, April 7th

Using Mathematics to Understand Cancer

Dr. Lisette
de Pillis
11:30AM - 12:30

All Events are Free and Open to the Public!

College of the Redwoods Presents

2nd Annual Celebration of WOMEN In Math, Science & Engineering

April 3rd - 7th

2006

at the CR Eureka Campus and the Wharfinger Building

<http://online.redwoods.edu/womenMSE>

Tuesday, April 4th

Fifteen local professional women will participate in an intimate round table discussion.
2:00 - 4:00 PM, CR Lakeview Room & Cafeteria

Thursday, April 6th

When Medicine and Mathematics Meet

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Lisette de Pillis

7:00 PM, Wharfinger Building

#1 Marina Way, Eureka

Plus 3 Noon-time Lectures in Physical Science Room 113

Monday, April 3rd

Confusion Hill:
Engineering a Solution

Talitha Stimson
11:30AM - 12:30

Wednesday, April 5th

Living in the Hot Zone:
Evaluating Stream Temperature Using Thermal
Infrared Imaging

Vicki Ozaki
11:30AM - 12:30

Friday, April 7th

Using Mathematics to Understand Cancer

Dr. Lisette
de Pillis
11:30AM - 12:30

All Events are Free and Open to the Public!